Mern Stack Devloper

GFG, Online

Feb 2023 - Aug 2023

MERN Stack Development Course is a bundle of technologies that includes MongoDB, Express JS, React JS, and Node JS1. The course will enhance your knowledge about front-end and back-end servers, MongoDB database and React library2. You will learn how to work with lists, forms, tables, geolocator APIs, session storage and video2. The course leverages the power of MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, and Node.js (MERN) to guide you in creating a fully-featured blogging platform from scratch3. You will gain hands-on expertise in developing and integrating essential web application features using cutting-edge technologies3.
