Project

Event Management System

Event management involves organizing focused events for specific audiences. Our project addresses the limitations of manual systems in today's digital world. It streamlines event planning, budgeting, and execution for various occasions such as concerts, seminars, and more. Our solution automates venue booking for events, offering an online platform. We prioritize efficient data management, integrity, and user-friendly design. The system aims to enhance customer support. Developed using Spring Boot, JPA, Hibernate, MySQL, HTML/CSS, and Bootstrap, it modernizes event management.

Roles and Responsibilities:

Role: Software Engineer/Developer

- Analyse requirements and user expectations for the event management system.
- Design the system, including database structure, user interfaces, and system components.
- Implement code in Java for automating event venue booking, planning, and execution processes.
- Conduct thorough testing (unit, integration, and system) to ensure functionality meets requirements.
- Prepare detailed documentation for system architecture, design, installation, user manuals, and technical information.
